

International Workshop: Improving our knowledge on bird migration over the sea

Date: 28/29 August 2017

Place: Large Lecture Hall (Institute of Zoology & Zoological Museum)
Martin-Luther-King-Platz 3, D-20146 Hamburg

Program

Mon 28th August 2017

13:00 Registration

14:00 Welcome and Introduction - Stefan Garthe (FTZ, University of Kiel, Germany)

14:10 Current situation of offshored development in Germany - Thomas Merck (BfN, Vilm/Rügen, Germany)

14:40 What we (don't) know about offshore bird migration - Ommo Hüppop (IfV, Wilhelmshaven, Germany)

15:10 Migration patterns of songbirds over the North Sea - flight heights and density patterns - Karen L. Krijgsveld (Royal Netherlands Air Force, The Hague, The Netherlands) and Ruben C. Fijn (BuWa, Culemborg, The Netherlands)

15:40 Criteria for the assessment of mortality in wild birds connected with human projects and impacts
Volker Dierschke (Gavia EcoResearch, Winsen/Luhe, Germany) and Dirk Bernotat (BfN, Leipzig, Germany)

16:10 Coffee break (30 Min)

16:40 Seabird GPS tracking
Stefan Garthe and Philipp Schwemmer (FTZ, University of Kiel, Germany)

17:10 ENRAM - Remote sensing of animal migration in Europe
Judy Shamoun-Baranes (University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands)

17:40 The ICARUS Project - New perspectives for animal tracking

Bernd Vorneweg (MPI for Ornithology, Radolfzell, Germany)

18:30 Social dinner

Tue 29th August 2017

09:00 Offshore monitoring of migrating birds
Ralf Aumüller and Markus Molis (Avitec Research GbR, Osterholz-Scharmbeck, Germany)

09:30 Automated radiotelemetry in Europe
Sissel Sjöberg (University of Copenhagen, Denmark)

10:00 Migratory decisions of passerines at the remote island of Helgoland
Heiko Schmaljohann (IfV, Wilhelmshaven, Germany)

10:30 Coffee break (30 Min)

11:00 BIRDMOVE - Automated radiotelemetry across the German Bight
Vera Brust (IfV, Wilhelmshaven, Germany)

11:30 Closing remarks - Ommo Hüppop

register here: www.ifv-vogelwarte.de/das-institut/tagungen