

Institut für Vogelforschung

„Vogelwarte Helgoland“

Wilhelmshaven

Ornithologisches Kolloquium 2021/2022

NEU: Mi 13:30 – 14:30 Uhr

Teilnahme an den Vorträgen via Zoom

(Links auf Anfrage unter poststelle@ifv-vogelwarte.de)

- |                                  |  |
|----------------------------------|--|
| 03.11.2021                       | Petra Quillfeldt Justus Liebig Universität GießenThe small pelagics: Ecology of prions and storm-petrels   |
| 17.11.2021                       | Barbara Helm University of Groningen (The Netherlands) &Schweizerische Vogelwarte Sempach (Schweiz)The right timing? Avian clocks meet changing environments         |
| 01.12.2021                       | Reto Burri Schweizerische Vogelwarte Sempach (Schweiz)Genomics of hybridization, speciation, and phenotypic evolution inwheatears (genus Oenanthe)                  |
| 15.12.202116:00-17:00 | Rebecca Safran University of Colorado, Boulder (US)The role of adaptation in phenotype divergence and speciation: anintegrative and comparative perspective         |
| 12.01.2022                       | Robert Rollins LMU Munich (Germany)Out of Asia? The complex evolutionary history of Eurasian Lymeborreliosis spirochetes and the role of host and vector adaptation |
| 26.01.2022                       | Mark Hauber University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (US)Testing ecological models through applied conservation projects: casestudies from New Zealand seabirds   |
| 09.02.2022                       | Elin Videvall Brown University (US)A Bird's-Eye View of the Microbiome   |
| 23.02.2022                       | Martin Stervander Natural History Museum, Tring & London (UK)   |
| 09.03.2022                       | Marina Rodriguez Colorado State University (US)   |